

VIPRO Glass-Hardscreen

(Int.Pat.pen.)

The Vipro Screen is a toughened glass coated with a grid of embedded micro lenses. The grey shade produces excellent contrast to the projected picture.

The Vipro Screen has a viewing angle of 360° with no image deformation and no hotspot in accordance with EN 12150.

The Vipro Screen is available in standard sizes in 4:3 and 16:9, custom sizes are available.

The Vipro Interactive Board and Table are complete self contained presentation units. Using a 67 inch (diagonal) Vipro Hardscreen and a Sanyo PLCXL50.

The Vipro Interactive Board is ideal for use in conference rooms, schools and universities and is a mobile unit.

The Vipro Interactive Table is ideal for use as an information source in hotel receptions, tourist offices and for displaying drawings in an architects office.

Lamb Works, North Road, Islington, London N7 9DP